

Charanprite Dhami: Assistant director

My name is Charanprite Dhami and I'm an assistant director.

You liaise with different departments, you look after the cast, look after the director.

He or she is the one in charge when you're rolling.

My route into film was unconventional. I was a teacher in prison.

I first applied to go to film school when I was 29.

Typical Indian parents always wanted me to be a doctor.

But I always wanted to be in film. That was like a lifelong dream for me.

Find your future. ScreenSkills.